

L'Atelier d'Argentine proudly announces a second Montreal location

Montreal, August 18th 2015 - After three successful years in Vieux-Port, the team behind L'Atelier d'Argentine has today announced the opening of a second Montreal venue. Led by award winning Executive Chef Natalia Machado and General Manager Jean-Bernard Forgues, L'Atelier d'Argentine has over the last three years established itself as an authentic showcase of the contemporary dining scene and will continue the true and very female friendly menu approach to a quality-led steakhouse in the new venue.

The new Ville-Marie Collection is making space for L'Atelier d'Argentine Downtown in the premises previously occupied by KYOZON, which is in turn slated to open in premises in Vieux-Port next year.

"We are beyond excited to open this new location and offer the same great value for money experience in these amazing premises Downtown" says Natalia Machado. Natalia is now being joined by Buenos-Aires born Chef de Cuisine Juan-Pablo Rey Nores, who recently moved to Montreal from a long and storied career in South America and the Middle East. Juan-Pablo grew up in Argentina, where he spent five years cooking with Francis Mallmann in both his restaurant in Buenos Aires and in Jose Ignacio in Uruguay, before venturing on an 8-year long career journey over Brazil, Dominican Republic and the Middle East with a final Montreal destination.

L'Atelier d'Argentine Downtown will open its doors Wednesday August 19th, 2015 and will initially be offering lunch and dinner Tuesday to Saturday till late. Limited time introductory offers include an amazing $16 2-course lunch Table d'hôte menu and a 3-course dinner menu starting at $22.

L'Atelier d'Argentine

L'Atelier d'Argentine is a next-generation female friendly steakhouse. The authenticity to contemporary Argentinean cuisine is core to experience as if torn out of the heart of Buenos Aires. The restaurant menu is modern, ingredient-led with strong references in regional cuisine and in Argentina's prevalent European heritage and influences. The subtle and understated references to Argentina through entertainment, wine, service and atmospheric contemporary environment creates a truly unique and genuine experience.
